Six portable rooms—that's Paisley High

More than 150 students have settled in at Altona's third high school — Paisley — which opened its doors for the first time on Tuesday last week.

The students, all first formers, are housed in six portable classrooms on the school site, off Blenheim Road, Altona North.

Also on the site are two portable toilet blocks and an office block for staff.

School principal Mr. David Collins told the Star this week the students had been allocated to five study groups, and were settling in well.

"I will be calling a parents'

meeting for one night next week," he said.

At last week's council meeting
Cr. Ray Richards asked town clerk
Mr. Jim Waters what the name of the new school was.

Mr. Waters replied that the school was still called Paisley.

The Minister for Lands, Mr.
Balfour, is expected to give his final ruling on council's appeal to have the name changed to Altona
East High when the place names committee meets next week.

Teachers may start theatre group

Altona Council has received a letter from two Altona
High School teachers who want to form a junior theatre company.

In their letter, the teachers said that in past years, a number of teachers had been involved with the production of school musicals and dramas.

Stating that such a company would fill a need in Altona and that ex-students of Altona High School and students from all other secondary schools would be invited to participate, they asked if the patronage of Altona's

mayor, Cr. Pat Lynch, could be obtained.

They also requested
council's full support.

After some discussion,
council decided to defer decision until its next general purposes committee meeting.

And he is hoping that the caller will have some ideas
which could eventuate in the formation of a club or organisation for dozens of Altona
young people who own horses.

"If just one concerned parent would approach me, or other councillors with a sound idea along the lines of a pony club,
council would bend
over backwards to help," Cr. Lynch said
last week.

"We could set aside
an area of land and really do something for these young horse-owners if only somebody responsible approached us."

The statements by
Cr. Lynch were made

Mayor's backing the horses

at last week's council meeting.

They followed a report by Cr. Ray Richards that an Altona North woman had suffered a fractured skull and her baby and pram had been kicked over, when a horse
which was ridden along a nature strip in Blackshaws Road, lashed out with its feet.

The woman and child were taken to hospital.

Cr. Richards said that in future council would have to deal
very severely with any breach of regulations where horses were concerned.

"This matter must be brought to light
again before we have another occurrence of this nature," said Cr.

Richards.

Earlier in the evening, councillors had discussed two stray horses which were recently sighted on the road near Altona
Hospital.

Altona's mayor and councillors are anxious to receive ideas which could be beneficial to Altona's young horse-riders and above all to the community.

The Star will also publish any relevant suggestions submitted by readers.

PSST...GOT A GOOD TIP?

Altona's Mayor, Cr. Pat Lynch, is waiting for someone to phone him with a "tip on the horses".

Altona Civic Hall num-

Council to meet April 24

The ordinary meeting of Altona Council scheduled for Tuesday, April 25, (Anzac Day) will now be held on Monday, April 24.

And council has agreed to abandon a general purposes committee meeting which would have been held on April 4 (Easter Tuesday).

The changes were made on the recommendation of the Town Clerk, Mr. Jim Waters.

Purnell St. sewerage years away

Purnell Street, Altona West will be only partially sewered for many years according to recent information from the Board of Works.

In a letter to Altona Council a Board representative advised that sewerage facilities for new properties on the north side of Purnell Street would not be available for many years.

He said the subdivision, like many others in the metropolitan area, was comparatively new and undeveloped and therefore formed part of a future sewerage reticulation area.

"There was no arrangement between the Board and the Roman Catholic Trust Corporation for the provision of sewerage for the subdivision," he said.

"However, it would be possible for the board to provide sewerage facilities in advance of the normal priorities if the owners, whether individually or collectively, or some other authority agreed to finance the work."

On the recommendation of Board of Works Commissioner Cr. Harry Weaver council agreed to note the letter and send copies of it to property owners on the north side of Purnell Street.

Cnr. Weaver told council that 25 residents were affected.

"And of these, 10 already have septic tanks," he said.

78 scouts in weekend out

Seventy-eight scouts and scouters from six Footscray district troops attended a camp at the "Pines", Altona, over the Labor Day long weekend.

The weekend included a "Scouts' Own" church service on the Sunday, a commando course, trips on rafts and canoes at the beach, and a camp fire on the Sunday night which 150 people attended.

Keith Howden from the First Footscray troop won the scouts' section of the tossing the caber competition and C. McDonald of the Ninth Footscray group was successful in the scout contest.

The winners of all contests received medals to be worn around their necks.

All participating scouts were given a pennant to be displayed in their scout halls, and each individual scout at the camp received a special "Pines" badge.

The assistant district commissioner for scouts, Mr. J. Cameron, said he was delighted with the high standard of scout and camp craft displayed by all troops.

He said also that he was delighted with the general co-operation of all concerned, both boys and scouts.

HEALTH HINTS, with Bill Ross of "Natural Thing" SWEATING IT OUT...

At this time of the year it is disconcerting to see many footballers, most of them overweight, attempting to regain their fitness.

As the March sun beats down, players are sweating and straining to turn last summer's flab into muscle.

A fallacy common amongst many sportsmen is the belief that such vigorous training will lead to a significant weight loss. This need not be the case. And if you consider that it takes 20 minutes of solid running to burn up the calories in two sweet biscuits, you can see why.

The best approach, then, is to watch diet carefully in the first few weeks of training. A seven-pound weight loss will make a player so much fitter and faster; it will also make his training easy.

Another mistake is to assume that fitness can be acquired quickly.

In fact, it takes a minimum of six weeks before a base for hard training can be developed.

For the first four weeks of this period, players should build up their running schedules from two to five miles. At this stage just covering the distance is all that matters.

In the final two weeks the distances run should be reduced to about two-and-a-half miles.

These training jogs should be done alone and the player should feel as if he is pushing hard all the way.

There is no use in starting slowly and finishing with a sprint.

From this exercise players should move into a two-week interval running schedule.

Distances should be covered at three-quarter pace over 200 yds. to 300 yds. allowing to two minutes rest between each run.

Five repetitions are adequate.

In conjunction with the running, a graduated physical exercise program of the 5BX-type should be followed.

Such a course develops mobility in joints, increases muscle flexibility and therefore greatly reduces the chance of injury.

SISTER WINS $1000

Sister Theresa, of Mount St. Joseph College for Girls, has won first prize in a recent art competition sponsored by Schweppes Soft Drinks.

The design, which won $1000, features a relief map of Australia with the slogan, "Keep Australia Beautiful".

It is entirely made up of "Schweppes" labels in various colors, cut from empty cans.

Sister Theresa insists that most of the work was done by her students.

They collected 700 cans and cut out labels with can openers, tin cutters and scissors.

The prizemoney will be used to buy sports equipment for the school, where Sister Theresa is a teacher.

An additional $200 award for charity will be donated to help Aborigines.

Sister Theresa's students (left) hold up the type of cans that were used to make up the winning design in the background.

District youth sets a new javelin mark

Manfred Rohkamper, 17 years of age, a Higher School Certificate student at Altona North High School, established a new Victorian junior javelin record of 217 ft. 3 in. on Sunday at Heidelberg athletic ground.

This special invitation event included athletes from Victoria and NSW.

Manfred finished third to Peter Callas 225 ft. (NSW champion) and Sigman Kosick (Victoria and Australian record holder) 219 ft.

This record throw follows Manfred's selection in the Victorian team to compete in the junior and senior javelin event at the Australian championships at Perth this Saturday and Sunday.

A member of the St. Bernards Amateur Athletic Club, Manfred has another year to his credit as a junior and will be striving to better the existing Australian record of 250 ft. held by J. Mitchell (NSW) since 1964.

One Monday at the school's general assembly, Mr. Hugh Coulston, production superintendent of Australian Carbon Black Pty. Ltd., presented a cheque for $50 to assist in defraying the travelling expenses of Manfred to compete in the Australian championships.

Altona hosts to marching girls

Three marching girls' teams from interstate will be hosted during the national marching girl titles by Altona Amethysts Marching Girls' Club.

And the Altona girls have launched an appeal for loans of bedding and blankets during the Easter weekend.

The titles will be contested at Camberwell Football Ground.

In a statement released on Monday, the Altona Club said the need for bedding was urgent.

Two of the visiting teams will be from NSW and the other from Western Australia.

STATE ROLE

The statement said also the club was at present raising money for its representation of Victoria at Mildura in June.

A special effort with a giant Easter egg as the award will be presented at a barbecue planned for late this month and a baby show and dress party were planned also.

Inquiries regarding these can be obtained by telephoning 398 2888.

GRAZING LICENCE

A grazing licence covering about 43 acres of land north of the Nordenne Estate and east of Millers Road has been granted to Mr. J. Graham of West Footscray by the Board of Works.

Altona Council received advice of the lease in a recent letter from the Board.

The Quest of Quests organisation today announced the appointment of Altona man Mr. Jack Foskett to its national committee.

Mr. Foskett has served on the Victorian and national committees of Quest of Quests since the organisation started in 1967.

He is married with a 17-year-old son. He served in the Apex movement for 10 years until 1970, and is now production manager of Taubmans Pty. Ltd.

He also lectures at the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology on oral communication and public administration.

Quest of Quests, which is sponsored by Waltons Limited, has prizes and opportunities valued at more than $100,000.

These include seven round-the-world trips with Chandris Lines, travellers cheques donated by the First National City Services Corporation of New York, a Chrysler motor car, and the opportunity for girls to enter other quests such as Miss World, Miss Universe, Miss International and Miss Young International.

The Altona Museum will be opened to the public on Sunday, March 26, from 2.30 to 4.30 p.m.

Also class at Sunshine, St. Albans, including ballet (modern and classical).

This year, with an addition to the playing strength, the club has resolved to also contest the B, C and D grades.

At the recent annual meeting of the club, which was attended by Cr. Pat Burns, plans were discussed to make the club a major strength in Melbourne chess competitions. It was also brought to the attention of Cr. Burns, who is patron of the club, that there was a desperate shortage of space and facilities.

Club members pointed out there were no toilets, tea or coffee making facilities, and the conditions were badly overcrowded. It was stated that, under the present conditions, the club could not hope to invite other clubs for matches and practice tournaments.

It was also added that it was remarkable the club had any members at all, much less being capable of winning tournaments.

Cr. Burns expressed his sympathies on the matter and promised he would give it urgent and immediate attention.

He spoke at length on the importance of chess as an international pastime and said he believed the game should be encouraged at every opportunity.

He went on to add that he would consider the possibility of a new hall being erected behind the Altona North Library to cater for the club and similar organisations.

He said that, in the meantime, he would do all in his power to arrange temporary accommodation for the club with the facilities required.

This information was well received and a vote of thanks to Cr. Burns was expressed.

There was also gratitude expressed to Cr. Burns and the Altona City Council for the work done in establishing the Chess Club and the provision of playing equipment.

The club offered to make Cr. Burns honorary president, but he declined. The club meets every Thursday night at the North Altona Library at 8 p.m.

New members or interested persons are welcome to attend.

City engineer, Mr. Ralph Simmons, made the following report on council contracts to last week's meeting of Altona Council:

THE MINK OR THE CAR?

• The Cornelius mink is worth $5500. The Statesman de Ville from General Motors-Holden's is valued at $4680. Which would you choose. This display by GMH was part of the activities to mark the opening of the Melbourne International Motor Show.

You sometimes wonder whether we have any council workers at Williamstown, looking at the weeds growing on the traffic island at North Williamstown boom gates. They have been growing for a few months, and are starting to look like small bushes to the passing motorists.

The retail motor industry welcomes the recommendations from the report on Fair Consumer Credit Laws which would help eliminate the undesirable elements in used car trading.

These proposals would be of mutual benefit to the motorist and the hundreds of reputable dealers who without question operate their businesses in a proper and ethical manner.

Many of the recommendations, in fact, were similar to those in the proposed Motor Traders' Act, submitted by the VACC to the Chief Secretary, as early as 1969.

"However, the proposals on warranty and right of rejection of goods would result in a direct increase in consumer costs."

Comments by Mr. Athol Kelly, executive vice-president of the VACC.

He was commenting on the special report prepared by a committee of nine Victorian lawyers and academics, which was tabled in the State Parliament this week. The report outlines ways and means to control the retail credit business.

It suggests tightening legal controls and offers protection to the consumer against unscrupulous 'sharks'.

A section deals in particular with the used car market. Mr. Kelly said that the Chamber supported the recommendations, which suggest restrictions on misleading advertising, censuring of excessive interest rates, and prohibition of such undesirable practices as the winding back of speedometers.

The VACC, Mr. Kelly said, has made constant submissions to the Government requesting that the retail motor industry be controlled by a special committee with representatives from consumer bodies, police, legal profession and the VACC.

This committee would have the power to issue, renew or cancel licences. A Guarantee Fund would be established to compensate buyers of vehicles in those instances where fraud was proved against a licensed dealer and would seek to curb such unethical practices as meaningless warranty covers, excessive hire purchase rates, untruthful advertising, and such operations as 'backyarding', 'bait selling' and 'switch selling'.

Mr. Kelly said that today's consumer was better educated, more demanding, and more affluent as a buyer in all fields. He said it was commendable that there was a growing refusal to accept shoddy or sub-standard goods, and it was appropriate that the Government should legislate to achieve this objective, but not at the expense of the consumer.

"The proposals put forward by the committee on warranty and right of rejection were idealistic if not unrealistic," said Mr. Kelly.

The suggestion that all cars over $500 have a warranty to 3000 miles or three months would have the effect of forcing up labor and parts costs. The dealer would also be liable for defects which were not apparent at the time of the sale and this would mean that an expensive and exhaustive test for mechanical or structural defects would have to be conducted prior to the sale of every car.

PROPOSED CONSUMER LAWS

This would lead to an increase in the cost to the consumer of obtaining vehicles on credit.

"The proposed Motor Trades Act forwarded by the VACC, was far more realistic on the subject of warranty," he said.

It proposed a minimum warranty for vehicles costing over $1500 of 1000 miles or one month, whichever came first and a 50/50 warranty of 1000 miles or one month for cars priced from $500 to $1500.

"This warranty is based on international trade practice and would achieve a minimum standard without any additional expense," said Mr. Kelly.

He said the retail motor industry was constantly striving to achieve the highest possible standards of practice and establish a reputation for dependability and integrity, but hoped to achieve this goal without unnecessarily burdening the consumer.

Horses in Spotswood quarantine

More than 100 thoroughbred horses worth about $1½ million have been sent to the Government Quarantine at Spotswood for an undetermined period.

The horses were unloaded from the ship Dona Clausen at South Wharf last Friday.

Dr. D. M. Flynn, of the quarantine station, said at the weekend all the horses would be thoroughly examined for "strangles", an infectious disease of the respiratory tract after a rumor it had been found on the ship.

"A PIECE OF GERMANY IN THE HEART OF FOOTSCRAY"

In your time— A GUIDE

TO LEISURE

By PETER VAUGHAN

It is unfortunate for people who live in the western suburbs that so many of Melbourne's fine eating houses are situated within the city itself or even further away in the southern and eastern areas.

Because of this historical reality suburbs such as Footscray are never associated with good restaurants and dining out.

Yet within the very heart of Footscray there is a restaurant which proves that good food and wine are not a matter of geography alone and that the western suburbs had developed a reputation which is unearned.

The CAPRI RESTAURANT (299 Barkly St., Footscray), deserves full credit for it has had to battle against the prejudiced attitude that the western area is a culinary desert.

In fact this restaurant is the rival, if not the better, of many supposedly superior places on the other side of the city, for its food and wine are amongst the best I have experienced in a restaurant of its type and price range.

On first viewing the dining area itself one cannot help the feeling that the decor is a little too severe to create an atmosphere of immediate warmth, but this is only a momentary feeling as one becomes more accustomed to the black, white and red tones which predominate.

The Capri has a very complete and enticing a la carte menu consisting of such delicious sections as entrees, fish, veal, grills, poultry, omelettes, salads, plus desserts and cheeses.

The prices of such dishes are very reasonable and this also applies to the excellent range of wines and spirits available as the Capri is fully licensed.

The wines should more than please the avid imbibers as there are some quite rare vintages on hand such as the 1962 Bin 33 Saltram's claret which became our most welcome choice.

The food itself was truly delightful (with service to match), cooked to perfection with care and attention, the highlights being the best Cocquilles St. Jacques I have had in a restaurant along with a superb Tournedos Rossini.

My wife also truly enjoyed her plentiful lobster cocktail and fill-et steak Zingara which consisted of a tender steak with ham, gherkin, wine and a piquant sauce.

For dessert we both had forbidden apple, the contents of which cannot be divulged!

So for a good night out the Capri is on your doorstep.

SUMMARY. Where: Capri, 299 Barkly St., Footscray, 68 2485.

No left-turn=smash= court=$20 fine...

A Williamstown man who drove his car in a "left turn only" lane in Millers Road, Brooklyn, but did not turn, was fined $20 at Sunshine Court last Wednesday.

Mobile Traffic Squad police said Drefer Badjon, of Rennie Street, Williamstown, had been involved in a collision because he did not turn as directed. Both his and another car had been badly damaged in the collision, they told Mr. E. L. Ross, SM. The lane in which Badjon was travelling was for left turn traffic only. The driver of the other car involved was taken by ambulance to hospital. Police said the defendant had agreed that he had been driving the car — "my new car" — in the left lane without turning, but said the other driver was to blame. Signs warning 'left turn only' were clearly marked on the traffic light poles and on the road surface, they said. Mr. Ross fined Badjon $20 for travelling in the wrong lane, but dismissed a careless driving charge.

Snowdropper active

Footscray police say there is another "snow-dropper" at work in the Spotswood area.

They say quantities of clothing have been disappearing from clothes lines of Spotswood homes with increasing regularity. A number of thefts have been reported.

Detectives investigating, have warned people in the district to watch their clothes carefully.

The Curtain Rises

● Craft teacher, Mrs. Snedden, shows Derek Pope and his classmates at Paisley High School how to use a fret saw.

Williamstown Little Theatre had a busy weekend on March 18-19.

The children's theatre staged two plays at Holy Trinity Church's garden party.

They are Another Cinderella and The Broken Leg.

The adult members of the theatre showed visitors the wardrobe and stage areas at Albert Street.

A large gathering stayed on to enjoy the barbecue.

The well cooked sausages and chops served with various fresh salads made a memorable meal.

Group members danced and sang songs to accompany music.

There were many interesting and informative discussions about advertising and theatre management.

Many people were surprised at the short distance between the theatre and the city.

Christine Bambery, the Little Theatre social secretary organised the function with her usual efficiency and it was a great success.

The winner of the special competition for the Colin Stephenson fund was Mrs. Scheppers, the mother of a children's theatre member.

She is now the owner of a personal electric fan.

Newport still in B grade

The Victorian Baseball Association has decided to keep Newport Baseball Club in B Grade for season 1972.

This good news, plus some rather outstanding recruiting by the club, should ensure a much better season than 1971.

Geoff Butlin, a former player, has been appointed coach for this season, and is to be assisted by Bob Milne.

Geoff and Bob have both given outstanding service to the club and congratulations are extended on their appointments.

One of the players gained by Newport for this season is Australian, Victorian and former Sunshine pitcher Lindsay Barnes.

Lindsay will be a great asset for Newport, for not only is he a top class player, he is also a great clubman.

Newport has also gained the services of a player from the top club in Sydney and favorable negotiations are under way with three other players from Melbourne A Grade clubs.

The season commences on April 22 and practice is already underway at 2 p.m. on Saturdays and 9.30 a.m. on Sundays at the J. C. White Reserve, Park Crescent, Williamstown.

The club will welcome any senior or junior players who would be interested in playing this season.

The ladies' committee is holding a "Fancy Hat" dance in the clubrooms next Saturday night.

Admission is 50 cents and ladies are asked to bring a plate. All are invited to what should be a very entertaining night.

ALTONA TEAMS DO WELL IN PRACTICE

Altona City's senior and reserve teams acquitted themselves well in practice matches at the weekend against Newborough, at Newborough in the Latrobe Valley.

The senior side played steady, strong football to notch up a 11.12 (78) win over the home side's 9.14 (68).

The reserves went down to the home team by 17 points. The scores were Newborough 11.12 (78) to Altona 8.13 (61).

The senior match was applauded by Altona City officials as having been first class, both from supporters' and players' angles.

City's win was even more commendable because several big names of last season were missing.

The match was played at a serious level but in good sporting spirit. Neither side shirked the issue.

The young players who filled the positions held last year by stars acquitted themselves well — so well, in fact, that the missing players might have to pull up their socks to get back into the side.

Altona goals in the senior side were kicked by: Darby, Munroe 4; R.

Schwabe 3; Molley 2; Morgan, D. Marshall. Prominent in the play were Doug Brennan, who excelled himself at centre-half-back, and Alan Walters, who was a great find for the half-forward-flank.

CONSISTENT

Glen Matgan consistently stood out on the wing and roving.

The ruck duties were carried out by Morrie Tisdale, Ion McLean, Dave Marshall and "Meggie" Harried.

Austin Molloy and Jack O'Connor were solid throughout the ground, during their spells on the field.

Special mention must be made of Johnny Meal, at full-back. He was as solid as a wall in defence and capped it off with some top-notch kicks.

RESERVES

The reserves match was a good pipe-opener in the sense that it pointed to possible cadets for open posts in the senior team.

By a Star Special Reporter

Seniors win, Reserves lose

The home side outpaced, outkicked and generally outplayed Altona.

Newborough players appeared to be all over the ground at the height of the game, something the Altona boys lacked.

The match turned into a sizzler in the last quarter, when Altona started to fight back, sparked off by captain-coach Bill Devereaux, who had moved to the centre, and Tom Hogan, whose aerial work was the best for the day.

Goalkickers for Altona in this match were: Churchill 4; Devereaux 2; East, Heany.

In the prominent players bracket, well to the for was Tommy Hogan, for his solid display in the ruck, and especially his fine marking around the ground.

Steve Grainger gave a tireless effort as rover, and K. Churchill was especially brilliant around the goal mouth.

Jack O'Connor was consistently solid. Paul Itter gave away several goals at full back, but made his presence felt when he moved on to the ball.

W. Devereaux gave a dead-set captain-coach game, with inspiring leadership which promises to be even better when he is playing on two legs instead of one!

Special mention must also be made of the effort by Eddie Bieson, who played and also drove the bus to and from Newborough.

This was a particularly gratifying example of self-sacrifice, which cannot be repaid in words.

Three of the four Altona tennis teams to make the finals have won their way into the grand final.

The grand finals will be played over Saturday and Sunday this weekend.

The only senior team in the finals, B section 1, slammed down Kingsville by 20 games last Saturday.

They lost only one set for the day.

Juniors boys section 1 had a comfortable win in the semi-finals, when they beat the top team by six games.

Shane Johnston and Alan Findlay won both their sets.

The boys section 2 team members weren't so successful.

After losing the first two sets in the semi-finals, Greg Clark and Tom Truman went on to win the third set,

Three teams in tennis final seven games to one, giving Altona a lead of one game, with one set to go.

Greg Scott and Neil Heyme started the last set in wonderful form and went quickly to a 5-to-1 lead.

But Spotswood battled back to a seven games to five win, causing Altona to lose by one game.

The preliminary final on Sunday turned into a one-sided affair, with the boys' section two winning by 20 games, giving them another chance against Spotswood.

Boys' section 4, suffering from finals nerves, went down on Saturday by 12 games.

In the preliminary finals on Sunday, Altona unfortunately lost their number one player and had to bring in an emergency.

The team battled hard, but finally went down by four games.

A club spokesman said on Monday that all teams in the grand finals had the good wishes of club members.

He said the matches were open to the public.

Teams for Saturday:

B special 1 v. Yarraville, at Central — C. Turner, D. Whitecross, F. Heyme, G. Thomas, S. Addcock, J. Burke.

Junior boys section 1, at VRI on Sunday — A. Findlay, G. Whitecross, S. Johnston, J. Bennett.

Junior boys section 2, v. Spotswood at Garden Street — C. Scott, C. Clarke, N. Heyme, M. Gilson.

Soccer team's record

Altona City, playing Triestina in the Docherty Soccer Cup competition at the weekend, rattled on 10 goals to create a new club record.

The most pleasing part of this was to see 17-year-old Miceski score four goals, and 16-year-old Nat Little notch three.

What a future these two lads have ahead of them! Add to them the flying feet of the Werribee kid, Iordanus, who is aged only 19. The Maroon's supporters are in for a soccer treat.

Other goals on Saturday were scored by Real, 2, and Ackers, 1.

'Big Jim' Ackers is back to top form and Brian Healey made a big difference as sweeper. He had uncanny understanding, and with captain Ian Hynes, shows Altona may have plugged the hole in the middle that was prominent last season.

Altona players are talking to each other all the time, encouraging each other and letting all know where they are.

This is sure to pay dividends. Some of Saturday's goals were results of this type of play.

Triestina were no match for the slick-moving Kims Reserve boys and goals came at regular intervals... and some of them real gems.

Round two of the cup series will be played on Saturday, and Altona have again drawn an away-from-home match.

This time, Coburg will be the venue.

Coburg fields a hard side and will be a good testing ground for the start of the league season.

A dance will be held to assist the Peter Bryden testimonial appeal on Saturday and tickets are available from all club members.

Bowls team down in final match

Altona Bowling Club's division A3 pennant team tried hard in the divisional final at Moreland at the weekend but went down under the pressure of Murrumbena Park.

A big contingent of Altona members followed their team, to give moral support in its bid for the pennant.

But Park applied a pressure too strong for Altona and won the flag by 9 shots... 86 to 95.

Though beaten, the Altona team and club members gained satisfaction in having played a game that was not decided until the final four ends.

The team must now go into the A2 division for next year's pennant play... a well-earned achievement.

Results: S. Carton (s), G. Russell, A. Butterworth, S. Fell — 30-17.

L. F. Neilson (s), W. Walsh, R. Douglas, L. Craig — 20-16.

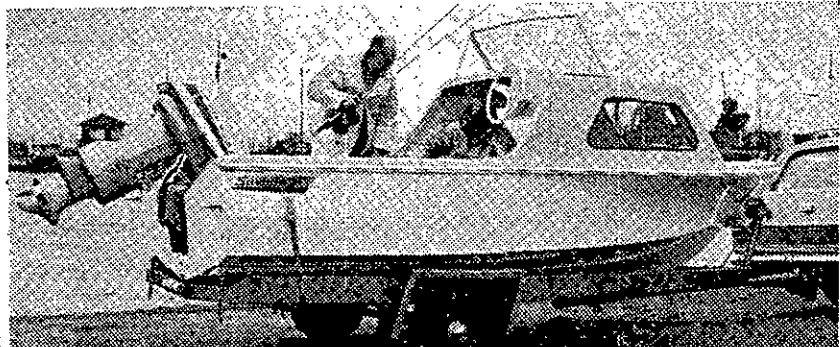

T. Reid (s), J. Stephens, I. Douglas, G. McNeillage — 19-29.

J. Fisher (s), J. Newton, H. Gibson, B. Nicholls — 17-33.

Club members have also extended their congratulations to George Russell and Tommy Oliver.

This follows their win in the club's pairs championships.

Cr. Les Crofts, the club champion, is also being congratulated on reaching the last 64 players in the Victorian Champion of Champions title match.
